

Lightbox Books to Light Up the Library

$2,935.00 – Elizabeth Shackelford, Alisal Elementary School

Funds to purchase 67 Lightbox books, electronic books that create a student centered learning experience

Solutions and PCR

$3,000 – Lata Mistry, Amador Valley High School

Funds for Biotechnology lab equipment and supplies

Developing Critical Thinking Skills through Lab Experiences

$1,922.00 – Diane Farthing, Amador Valley High School

Funds for Anatomy and Physiology lab equipment

Alternative Seating for Enhanced Learning

$231.00 – Aimee Buckley, Amador Valley High School

Funds for stability balance discs

All Hands on Stem

$3,000.00 – Erin Kindig, Donlon Elementary

Funds for engineering materials

STEAM for All Donlon 1st Graders

$2,187.00 – Denise Morgan, Donlon Elementary

Funds for STEAM-related manipulatives to be shared across the grade

Project Lead the Way Fairlands

$1,615.00 – Donna Adkins, Fairlands Elementary School

Funds for kits and program fee for Project Lead the Way

Coding with Dot and Dash

$1,000.00 – Brian Esse, Fairlands Elementary School

Funds for Dot and Dash robots to teach coding

Friendly Signals and Happy Hearts: Social Emotional Learning for Preschoolers

$2,300.00 – Eileen Cristobal-Rodriguez, Harvest Park Preschool

Funds for kits and storybooks to incorporate social emotional learning into the preschool curriculum

Hyperdoc Projects

$2,240.00 – Nicole Lee, Lydiksen Elementary School

Funds to purchase Chromebooks in order to utilize innovative lessons

Sparking a Coding Movement with iPad Minis for Dash and Dot Robots

$2,863.93 – Arlene Simpelo, Lydiksen Elementary School

Funds to purchase iPads minis to support coding club

Full Steam Ahead with Dash and Dot

$1,566.34 – Linda Wu, Lydiksen Elementary School

Funds to purchase more equipment to expand Dot and Dash access to entire school

Unique Learning Systems

$1,960.00 – Tim Roach, Village High School

Funds to purchase Chromebooks to aid access to Unique Learning Systems Curriculum

Diversity Day Funding

$500 – Russell Sato, Village High School

Funds to support a workshop on spoken word poetry as part of the school's Diversity Day celebration

Optimize STEM Learning through Chromebook Centers

$2,736.99 – Maria Lim, Walnut Grove Elementary School

Funds to purchase Chromebooks for innovative learning applications with STEM focus

Crazy for Coding

$2,980.72 – Michelle Williams, Walnut Grove Elementary School

Funds to purchase Chromebooks to implement Scratch coding project